

Inclusion & Support Services Monthly Speaker Series

How to Apply for Services for Your Child with a Disability Through the Lifetime

Presented by Cheryl Crick of The Arc of New Jersey

Thursday, October 15 from 7:30 - 8:30 p.m.

Discussion will include information on

- How to apply for early intervention services
- Applying for services for ages 3 through 21
- Overview of transition services post age 21
- Services changes during the Covid-19 pandemic

Time will be allotted for Q&A.

Cheryl Crick earned her degree in Public Relations from Rowan University and works for The Arc of New Jersey as the Coordinator of Family Advocacy and Advocacy Services. Through The Arc of New Jersey Family Institute, Cheryl empowers New Jersey families that have a loved one with an intellectual and/or developmental disability to become personally involved in public policy and advocacy, and provides caregivers with the necessary resources and education to access the appropriate support and services for their loved one. One of Cheryl's most important roles is that of a sibling. Her older brother has autism and an intellectual disability.
