Mandatory Summer Reading for Students Entering Grade 5

Instructions: Students must read one of the books from the list below and complete one of the projects. Projects are due no later than September 8, 2017.

Henry and the Paper Route, Beverly Cleary

Henry Huggins feels he's ready for a paper route of his own. However, the newspaper will not hire him because he is too young. Luckily there is a lot happening on Klickitat Street to distract Henry while he waits for his birthday to come around. On his street Henry discovers, a box of mischievous kittens, a new boy with a robot, and, as always, the irrepressible Ramona Quimby (who just may be able to get Henry that paper route he has so desperately wanted for such a long time).

George Washington's Socks, Elvira Woodruff

George Washington Socks is an historical fiction story of five kids who one night; take a walk along Lake Levart. Suddenly, a mysterious wooden rowboat calls them aboard. They all board, but do not realize that this enchanted boat is headed back to the time of George Washington. Their neighborhood lake is transformed into the icy Delaware River on the eve of the battle at Trenton. How will they ever find their way home? Read George Washington Socks and find out what happens to them.

Sarah, Plain and Tall, Patricia MacLachlan

Sarah, Plain and Tall is a heartwarming tale of a family in search of a mother. Anna and Caleb are two motherless children, who live all alone with their father in an isolated, rural community in turn of the century America. Life is difficult on the farm for the three lonely family members. The nearest neighbors are a half-day drive from the farm by wagon, and although it's been several years since Papa was widowed, there are no eligible women in the area for him to meet. Little Caleb, in particular, needs a mother. Mama died after giving birth to Caleb, and he has never known the love of a mother. This loss tears at Anna's heart every time Caleb asks her what life was like when Mama was alive.

The Good Dog, Avi

McKinley, a malamute, is a good dog -- he's reliable and trustworthy. Whether it's watching over the other dogs of Steamboat Springs, Colorado, or taking care of his human pup, Jack, McKinley never even thinks of letting anyone down -- until he meets Lupin. Lupin is a she-wolf and she's urging the dogs of Steamboat Springs to leave their domesticated lives and join her wild pack. And though she scares McKinley, he also finds himself drawn to her and the life of freedom that she offers.

For the first time, McKinley's loyalties are torn. Should he stay with his humans and continue to lead the dogs of Steamboat Springs? Or should he join the wolf and live freely, like his ancestors did? When the wild calls, what will McKinley's answer be?

Free Baseball, Sue Corbett

Felix knows his dad was a famous baseball player in Cuba—and that his father risked everything to send Felix to America. But his mom won't reveal anything else. When a baseball team with Cuban players comes to town, Felix wonders if they knew his dad and sneaks into their locker room to ask. That's when the players mistake him for their new batboy. Determined to uncover the truth about his mysterious father, Felix plays along, going as far as running away from home to become the team's batboy. His bittersweet adventure glows with the friendship of a miraculous dog, the warmth of a mother's love, and the magic of baseball.
